Coach - Athlete Relationship: Having the difficult conversation

WESTERN FORUM

Tuesday 4 June | 6pm CET / 9am PST / 5pm BST | ZOOM

The coach-athlete relationship is unique and the most important in sport. And like any other relationship, it has to be worked at and there will be bumps along the journey. When the bumps occur, how do we tackle them? In this forum, we welcome speakers who will, through their experience and knowledge, discuss how we can successfully approach and resolve difficult conversations.
