DAY 2 ATTENDANCE FIGURES WCH Tokyo 25 records second sell-out day!

The World Athletics Championships Tokyo 25 opened in spectacular fashion yesterday at the iconic Japan National Stadium, with fans flocking in their tens of thousands to witness the greatest athletes on the planet compete on the sport's grandest stage.

After a sell-out DAY 1 Evening Session, we are delighted to confirm that the DAY 2 Evening Session was also a complete sell-out, with every ticketed seat filled as the world's finest athletes took centre stage once again.

The scenes confirmed what we all knew – Tokyo has embraced these championships with unbridled passion, delivering a second successive day of record attendance and unforgettable energy.

The official attendance figures for DAY 2, as of 21:00 on Saturday 14 September, stand as follows:

Morning Session: 30,080

Evening Session: 57,528

Demand is expected to remain high for both morning and evening sessions throughout the championships, and fans who wish to witness world-class performances on this unforgettable stage are strongly encouraged to secure their tickets early via the official WCH Tokyo 25 ticketing site: <https://tokyo25.pia.jp/>

Don't miss your chance to be part of history—experience the power, passion, and drama of WCH Tokyo 25!
