DAY 4 ATTENDANCE FIGURES

WCH Tokyo 25 records over 300,000 spectators across first four days

The World Athletics Championships Tokyo 25 has made a spectacular start, with more than 300,000 fans attending over the first four days of competition at the Japan National Stadium.

Each day has featured unforgettable performances, including record-breaking jumps and historic moments, showcasing the excitement, passion, and global appeal of athletics.

Highlights from the First Four Days:

- DAY 1: Oblique Seville (Jamaica) clinched the men's 100m gold with a championship-record time of 9.77 seconds, edging out Noah Lyles and Kishane Thompson.
- DAY 2: Melissa Jefferson-Wooden (USA) set a new world championship record in the women's 100m final with a time of 10.61 seconds, the fourth-fastest in history.
- DAY 3: Armand "Mondo" Duplantis (Sweden) thrilled fans by setting his 14th world record with a jump of 6.30 meters in the men's pole vault, securing his third consecutive world title.
- DAY 4: Ditaji Kambundji (Switzerland) stunned by winning gold in the women's 100m hurdles with a personal-best 12.24 seconds.

With five days of competition still ahead, the anticipation only grows. We look forward to witnessing more world records, more medals, and more unforgettable moments that will inspire fans here in Tokyo and around the world.

The official attendance figures for DAY 4, as of 21:00 on Sunday, 16 September, are as follows:
