

VENUE ACCESS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Venue Access Terms and Conditions (hereinafter: "Terms") of IRUB Kft. (registered seat: 1037 Budapest, Jablonka út 71.) and the National Event Management Agency Non-Profit Ltd. (registered seat: 1134 Budapest, Váci út 35.; hereinafter jointly: the "Organiser") for the World Athletics Ultimate Championship 2026 (hereinafter: the "Event"), staged with the approval of World Athletics, establish the mandatory entry and conduct regulations applicable to the Event. Any individual attending the Event (hereinafter: "Visitor") shall comply with these Terms and with the house rules of the Event venue (Zsivotzky Gyula Nemzeti Atlétikai Központ, Budapest) while present within the Event venue. By entering and being present at the Event venue, the Visitor expressly accepts and acknowledges these Terms as binding and agrees to comply with all instructions given by the Organiser, the security service and the police.

These Terms will be displayed in a clearly visible manner at several points of the Event venue and will also be available on the official website of the Event.

Venue of the Event: Zsivotzky Gyula Nemzeti Atlétikai Központ, 1095 Budapest, Hajóállomás utca 1.

Duration of the Event: 11-13 September 2026.

Pursuant to Act CXXXIII of 2005 on the Rules of Personal and Property Protection and Private Investigation, the Organiser is entitled to:

- verify the identity of Visitors,
- search the bags of Visitors upon entry and exit,
- prevent specified items from being brought into, or taken out of, the Event venue,
- deny entry to, or prohibit the continued presence of, a Visitor, and
- request the departure of any person disrupting the order of the Event.

Entry, permitted and prohibited items

Visitors may bring into the Event venue: one (1) handbag or backpack per person, no larger than A4 size; non-alcoholic drink for personal consumption in a plastic bottle of no more than 0.7 litres; and cold food for personal consumption, in a quantity not exceeding what fits inside the bag permitted under the bag policy.

Bags exceeding this size must be left at the designated cloakroom at the entrance; food and drink cannot be accepted for storage.

For safety reasons, and with reference to Government Decree 175/2003 (X. 28.) on devices particularly dangerous to public safety, it is strictly prohibited to bring into the Event venue: sharp or dangerous objects (e.g. knives, explosives, weapons, ammunition), drugs, harmful or flammable substances or poisons, fireworks, smoke bombs, firecrackers, laser pointers, horns or other noise-making devices, selfie sticks, camera lenses longer than 30 cm, aerosol spray cans (e.g. hairspray, deodorant, insect repellent), suitcases, shopping carts, glass bottles or other glass or metal containers, plastic bottles over 0.7 litres, musical instruments, drones or other remote-controlled aircraft, tents, sleeping bags, scooters, and chairs or tables. Pointed or metal-tipped umbrellas may not be brought in; other umbrellas may not be used within the spectator stands.

This list is not exhaustive; the Organiser and/or any person authorised by it may prohibit or restrict additional items considered to pose a safety risk. A detailed, illustrated list of prohibited items is set out in Annex 1 and Annex 2 to these Terms.

Visitors may not bring in professional video or photographic cameras, or any professional equipment or device capable of recording, transmitting or otherwise distributing the sound, moving or still images of the Event — other than a mobile phone or a camera with a non-detachable lens — unless the Organiser has given its express written consent.

Other than assistance dogs, guide dogs and police dogs as defined by law, it is prohibited to bring animals into the Event venue.

Visitors may only bring in the official flags and symbols of countries with an athlete accredited in the Event's competitions; national flags may bear only the official name of the participating country, its cities, the sports club entering the athlete, or the athlete's official name. Banners or flags may only be displayed on barriers or poles with the prior approval of the Organiser and the security service. The Organiser may remove any banner or flag displayed without authorisation, or not in the manner or location previously approved.

Rules of conduct

Visitors must participate in the Event while observing generally accepted rules of conduct, applicable law and these Terms. Visitors must not engage in any activity that disrupts, obstructs or endangers the order of the Event or the personal and property safety of participants. In particular, Visitors must not:

- endanger the life, physical integrity or property rights of others, or the integrity of their immediate environment;
- engage in conduct that would otherwise justify police action;
- engage in racist, hate-inciting, fear-inducing or offensive behaviour unrelated to fair sportsmanship, or display signage, symbols or flags of such content;
- throw objects;
- enter, or attempt to enter, areas not accessible to Visitors or the field of play without authorisation;
- use pyrotechnic products or cause fire;
- use lasers or other signalling lights;
- disrupt anthems or official ceremonies;
- stop or remain on escape routes, stairs, corridors, entrances or emergency exits, or otherwise obstruct their free use;
- obstruct the view of other Visitors;
- climb fences, other venue structures, or seats.

If a Visitor does not cease any of the above despite a warning from the Organiser, their entry may be denied or they may be removed from the Event.

The Organiser is required to refuse ticket sales to, and prevent the participation of, any person removed from the Event or subject to exclusion, prohibition or a ban on attending sporting events under Section 73(1) of Act I of 2004 on Sport. The period of exclusion may not be shorter than six months and, in respect of all events organised by the Organiser, may not exceed two years, or four years in respect of a given event.

If a Visitor breaches these Terms, or fails to stop unlawful conduct despite a warning from the Organiser, security guards may request that they verify their identity. If the Visitor refuses to do so, they may be held at the Event venue until the police arrive, but for no longer than three hours, and image and sound recordings may be made of the incident.

The Organiser is not obliged to refund the price of the ticket to a Visitor whose entry was denied, or who was removed from the Event.

Visitors involved in causing damage are jointly and severally liable for any loss arising from a breach of the security requirements. This does not affect their secondary or criminal liability.

The Organiser, or the security service engaged by it, may monitor the Event venue, entry points and the adjoining public areas using a camera system, processing and storing recordings in accordance with applicable law.

Recording and use of image and sound

Visitors acknowledge that the Event is continuously filmed and audio recorded, and broadcast live, by the Organiser and by contractual partners, contributors and press personnel authorised by the Organiser. The Visitor's image may appear on the on-site screens at any time. Accordingly, by attending the Event, the Visitor expressly consents to the recording and publication of their face, appearance and statements, on the understanding that they may only be named with their express consent. A Visitor who qualifies as a public figure may be named without such consent.

In respect of the recordings referred to above, the Organiser acquires an unlimited, transferable and exclusive right of use in respect of the Visitor, in terms of space, time and method of use, and is entitled — in particular for the purpose of promoting the Event — to publish, exploit, reproduce, adapt, disclose and distribute such recordings, without any obligation to pay the Visitor any compensation.

In connection with the recordings and publications referred to above, the Visitor is not entitled to raise any claim or demand against the Organiser.

Commercial activity, alcohol, demonstrations

Other than activities planned by the Organiser, no economic, commercial, marketing or advertising activity of any kind may be carried out on the premises of the Event — including the immediate vicinity of the Event and the area in front of the entrance — and the visibility of surfaces used for such activity may not be obstructed, in whole or in part.

No alcoholic beverages may be served to persons under the age of eighteen (18) at catering units.

Demonstrations unrelated to the events organised by the Organiser are prohibited at the Event, regardless of the number of participants.

Compliance with the conduct and safety rules at the Event venue is overseen by an appropriately qualified and licensed security service.

Littering is prohibited throughout the entire Event venue. Smoking and the use of e-cigarettes are only permitted in designated areas.

Third-party services and liability

Visitors acknowledge that products and services may be offered at the Event venue by contractual partners other than the Organiser (in particular, but not limited to, food and beverages offered by catering units). In such cases, a contractual relationship is established directly between the Visitor and the relevant partner. The Visitor may not raise any claim against the Organiser in connection with the rights and obligations arising from that relationship, for which the Organiser bears no liability.

Continuous first aid and medical assistance are available on-site throughout the Event.

The Visitor releases the Organiser from liability and waives all claims for any bodily injury, property damage or loss arising out of or in connection with the Event, even where caused by the Organiser, whether based on contract or tort. This release and waiver do not apply where the injury, damage or loss was caused by intentional misconduct or gross negligence; in such cases liability is limited to the organising unit, subcontractor or contributor that acted with intentional misconduct or gross negligence.

The Organiser maintains liability insurance in respect of the Event.

The Event will not take place if the competent authorities order its suspension or closure, or if holding it becomes impossible due to a force majeure event (e.g. extreme weather) or any other event threatening personal safety or physical integrity.

Other provisions

Comments regarding catering, organisation or other matters may be raised with staff at the information points shown on the venue map. Lost items may be handed in at the designated point shown on the venue map, and enquiries about lost property can also be made there.

The Organiser accepts no liability for valuables placed or left at the Event venue.

Only cashless payment is available throughout the Event venue. Payment can be made by bank card or HelloPay card. The HelloPay card can be easily topped up at the designated top-up points.

The Organiser reserves the right to make changes to these Terms.

Have a good time and enjoy!
